

April Letter from the University Library

April 1, 2008

University of Wisconsin-Whitewater

Library News

Annual Book Sale

MON April 14 6-8pm (pre-sale for UWW and Friends of the Library)

TUES April 15 8am-8pm

WED April 16 8am-8pm

THURS April 17 8am-4pm

Andersen Library Lobby - Be there for the bargains!

Brought to you by Friends of the Library

See You—At the Movies

Don't forget the Library's collection of popular movies, paid for by Library fines & fees. We have drama, action, romance, comedy and lots more. This link to the Library Catalog will search for all feature films on DVD. Movies may be checked out for two weeks!

Chronicle of Higher Education

Higher education is the business of every UWW staff member. You can keep up with the latest news in academia by reading the Chronicle of Higher Education online. Or sign up for daily or weekly e-mail alerts with the top news.

THE CHRONICLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Nature Online

Nature online is the international weekly journal of science that is full of fascinating articles.

Read about how Spanish palaeontologists recently unearthed the oldest human-like remains found in Europe. Or find out the science behind why we crave sweets. These articles are written in accessible language that we can all enjoy.

FACULTY CORNER

Get a Head Start on Summer School Prep

Order Material – If you're teaching this summer, you can get a head start by ordering any library material you'll need for summer school courses now. Get your requests to your Dept. Library Rep or place your orders online. Make sure to include a note that the items are needed for summer school.

Place Material on Reserve – If you need to renew course reserves (print or electronic) for summer, please e-mail to request renewal. And if you have new reserve material for summer, it's not too early to get that material into the reserves pipeline.