Celebrating Scholarship & Creative Achievements

Enjoy cake and hors d'oeuvres while browsing the scholarly and creative achievements of UWW faculty and staff in the Crossman Gallery.

Live music, lively conversation and a short address by the Chancellor will cap off this "opening" at the Center of the Arts.

The Twenty-third Annual Scholarship & Creative Achievements Recognition Reception will take place on Wednesday, November 24, 2010, from 10:30am-noon in the Crossman Gallery.

The exhibit will be open for viewing on Tuesday, November 23, 2010, from 10am-5pm and 6-8pm. <http://library.uww.edu/scholarship.html>

Go Global with the Global Cafe Series

Global Café is a monthly informal gathering of students, faculty and staff that promotes cross-cultural awareness through the exchange of ideas and experiences. Presentations will be given by international, travel study and study abroad students.

The series is sponsored by the Center for Global Education.

Where: Andersen Library, Main Floor near TV

When: Tuesday November 2nd, 5pm: Germany, Sweden and Ireland

Tuesday November 16th, 5pm: Sri Lanka, France and Scotland

Veterans Students' Lounge

The main floor of the Library will soon be home to a lounge for our student armed services veterans. The new space will be equipped with reading materials, comfortable furniture, Skype stations for keeping in touch with family and friends overseas, and much more.

Game On: Gaming Week@Andersen

In celebration of National Gaming Day, the Library is hosting a week of gaming events starting Monday, November 8. The week kicks off with a screening of the documentary Get Lamp that chronicles the birth of text-based computer adventure games in the early 1980s.

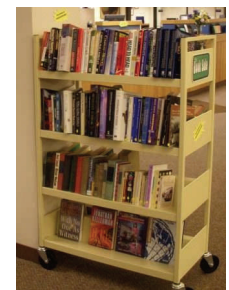

The week will include a day of open gaming as well as a Guitar Hero tournament.

See the complete listing of activities on the Library's Events page:

Book Sale

The Library's continuous book sale celebrated its one year anniversary earlier this fall. We have received positive feedback from Library users who no longer have to wait a year for the next sale. Books and media are offered continuously throughout the year.

This month's sale features gift books in many subject areas including history, economics, and government. All books are priced at $1 this month.
